Introduction to St. Euphrasia :

ST.EUPHRASIA

First Saint of CMC Congregation

E-TIME is named after St. Euphrasia, the first Saint of the CMC Congregation. She is an Indian Carmelite nun, belonging to Congregation of Mother of Carmel (CMC) lived every moment of her life loving, serving and worshipping God. She was born in a wealthy Christian orthodox family on 17th October 1877 in the Kattur village of Thrissur, Kerala. She grew up with great zeal and fervent desire in God and offered herself to Him.

Even in the midst of all wealth and pomp in the family, her heart yearned nothing but God. She overcame many objections from her family yet she was firm and became a nun.

Her love and mercy for others grew stronger with her age there on. St.Euphrasia found contentment in Jesus. The whole life of this virgin was spent in continuous prayer, penance and reparation. She cherished immense joy while serving others. She prioritized humility and purity over all other virtues. She passed away in the convent at Ollur on 29 August, 1952. Her motto "Never forget even after death", was fulfilled when great heavenly intercessions were made and confirmed through miracles and signs. This holy virgin who desired to lead her life unnoticed is raised as a saint today and spreads the sweet fragrance of her sanctity worldwide. She is also known as a powerful intercessor for the students and all those who seek her prayers.

To commemorate the life of this loving, humble and devout Saint, E-TIME is named after her.
